

Sharing the Peace

It is a new world.
COVID-19 has joined in,
a new terrorist group,
spreading havoc all over,
with guns and bombs,
taking some out, one by one,
injuring others, by the thousands.

I go to church to pray,
sharing the peace in new ways.
Hands no longer shook,
now using the traditional palm wave,
the two-finger symbol of peace.

Yes, living another day.
We are taking you on COVID-19.
Can't you see,
all we want is peace, not war.
Surrender your weapons.

Duane currently lives in La Vista, NE, and volunteers with a non-profit organization as a Donor Ambassador on their blood drives.

~ ♦❁♦ ~

The Pangolin Review, Covid-19 Issue (April, 2020)